Archbishop's Archdeaconry Roadshows 17th August

The experiences of this past year have impacted significantly on the Church in general, and on a number of parishes in particular. Crises brought on through one-time events like the COVID-19 pandemic can often be a catalyst for change. The Archbishop is planning a series of 'Archdeaconry Roadshows' that build on the theme of the recent Marmingatha Episcopate clergy conference: 'Reimagining the Future'. Each roadshow will comprise two sessions, afternoon and night. These will also be an opportunity for all clergy and lay people to meet with the Archbishop and some of the members of the Diocesan Office. In particular our new General Manager Justin Lachal and the Registrar Malcolm Tadgell.

The Essendon Archdeaconry (of which St Aidan's is part) meeting is on Tuesday 17 August. 2.30pm-5pm or 7pm-9pm at St Michael's North Carlton, 14 Mcilwraith St., Princes Hill VIC 3054

The Revd Lynda
will be in the parish

Sunday, Monday,
